

Library Card Purchase

A person not eligible to receive a Cranford Public Library card free of charge may purchase a card good for one year. The cost of the card shall be established by the Library Board of Trustees. When purchased, only one card shall be issued to the purchaser. In no case shall multiple cards be issued, and duplicate cards shall not be issued to other members of the purchaser's family.

Such a card shall entitle the purchaser to the same borrowing privileges as any other Cranford Public Library cardholder. The card may be used by anyone in the purchaser's immediate family. In cases where there are limits on the number of items of a particular classification that may be borrowed, such limits shall apply to the purchaser's family as a whole and not to individual members of the family.
